

LYNCHING OF AN ARIZONA FIEND

Murderer Outrages Woman and Is Then Put to Death on Telephone Pole.

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 6.—Star Daley, who killed James Ray Gibson, a traveling salesman, near Mesa, eight-

An attempt was made early Saturday evening to remove Daley from the jail, but it was abandoned because the officials learned that the road to Florence was being watched at several points.

Chase Then Begun. The chase was begun within five minutes and 100 automobiles were soon tearing after the deputies' car.

A telegram from Florence states that a coroner's jury, which conducted an inquest on the body, found that "Daley was the victim of justifiable homicide committed by persons unknown to the jury."

On the way from the place of his capture to the scene of his execution Daley related in sickening detail the circumstances of the killing of Gibson and subsequent events, corroborating the story of Mrs. Gibson. He gave a list of crimes committed by him, including three murders, participation in a robbery and a train of minor offenses.

Body Left Hanging. Daley asked that his neck might be broken and that he be not strangled to death. After the rope was fastened to the telephone pole and adjusted to the neck of Daley he was elevated to the top of an automobile and the machine was driven from under him.

Mr. Gibson and his wife were traveling by automobile over the Apache trail from Tucson to Phoenix when Gibson was killed. They made camp Thursday night near Mesa.

Wife Tells Story. The next morning, she later told officers who arrested Daley, he compelled her to enter the automobile with him and started for Phoenix, but Daley finally yielded to her pleading and consented to take Gibson's body to Mesa for burial.

Upon their arrival at Mesa Mrs. Gibson told of the killing of her husband and of the indignation to which she had been subjected at the hands of her husband's slayer, and Daley was arrested. He was brought to Phoenix

REBELS IN CUBA BURN PROPERTY

Refuges Predict There Will Be a Massacre of Whites on Island.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Charges that Cuban negro rebels are burning and pillaging the homes and properties of Americans and other foreigners in the districts of Palmario, Bayate and Miranda, Oriente province, were made by twenty-four American and British refugees who arrived here today.

The refugees predicted that there will be a massacre of the white residents remaining unless the United States intervenes and asserted that the Cuban government is powerless to cope with the situation. Most of the refugees escaped with only the clothes they wore.

The accusations were substantiated by an appeal for aid signed by 116 Americans remaining, the rest of the territory being occupied by the rebels. The appeal, the refugees said, would be forwarded to the state department at Washington.

The threat of a massacre is contained in a statement included in the appeal, alleged to have been written by General Bias Maso. The statement is reproduced in full as follows: "You will holler loudest, and we will destroy until your hollering will be heard in Washington, and force American intervention. For the time being, we will not fight the government troops, and we will not kill you unless you oppose us. We are only fighting now with the torch terrorizing and organizing."

Rebels Are Negroes. "You will notice that we rebels are negroes to a man. You will remember the negro revolution of 1912, when 5,000 negroes were killed in this province. We remember that, too, and now, that we are armed, the death of 5,000 defenseless negroes in 1912 shall now be avenged in a horrible war, I assure you."

George Buxton of Norwalk, Conn., asserted that the rebels held full sway in Oriente province outside of Santiago and its environs. "Burning and pillaging," he said, "are far from infrequent. The atrocities committed on the whites in Mexico haven't a thing on what has been done and what is being done now in Cuba."

"I have seen one of my neighbors, Victor Anderson, a North Dakotan, dragged from his home with a rope around his neck and swung from a tree because he refused to divulge the hiding place of jewels and whisky, that he was supposed to have."

Francis Brake, a Canadian, described and lodged in the county jail Friday night. Mrs. Gibson's story of her mistreatment at Daley's hands after her husband had been killed aroused great indignation and threats of lynching the prisoner were made, but this did not assume alarming proportions until Saturday.

The Gibsons lived at Tucson. He was a salesman for a Chicago house. Daley was a white man, about 34 years of age, and said he was a deserter from the regular army. He said his relatives live in Oklahoma, where he had lived when a boy. Just before the hanging Daley asked for a drink of whisky, but there was not a drop of liquor in the crowd.

FRENCH GAIN ON GERMAN FORCES

Capture Positions on Eighteen-mile Front and Resist Counter Attacks.

PARIS, May 6.—Every gain scored by the French in yesterday's brilliant advance northeast of Soissons was maintained against numerous heavy counter attacks last night, the war office announced today. Consolidation of this ground has made them masters of most of the ridge crowned by the Chemin-des-Dames along a front of more than eighteen miles.

The prisoners taken have reached a total of 5,800 and seven cannon have been captured. A violent artillery action has been in progress northwest of Rheims. In the Champagne there has likewise been a terrific duel of big guns. In this region a fortified point of support near Mont Haut was captured by the French and held against counter attacks.

British Hold Line. LONDON, May 6, 3:12 p. m.—The British are successfully maintaining themselves in the breach they have made in the Hindenburg line near Bullecourt. The Germans delivered a determined attack at this point last night, which entirely failed, and were balked again this morning in a similar effort, the war office announced today, the British fire breaking up the attempt.

Northwest of St. Quentin the Germans were foiled in an effort to retake the ground lost on Saturday east of Le Vergies, while their trenches further north were subjected to a raid on a mile and a half front, in which heavy damage was done their defensive positions.

French Attack Futile. BERLIN, May 6, via London, 6 p. m.—(British Admiralty per Wireless Press).—A tremendous thrust by the French on a front of nearly twenty miles in an effort to break through the German line on the Allette-Cromme front yesterday proved entirely futile, army headquarters announced today.

The French fire completely destroyed the German positions on the Winterburg, northeast of Cromme, and this height, with the village of Chevreux remained in French possession. On the Chemin-des-Dames the Germans now occupy the northern slope of the ridge east of Royere farm (near the western end of the Chemin-des-Dames).

French attacks near La Neuville and southwest of Naudry (Champagne) were repulsed. The Germans have taken several hundred prisoners, 20 machine guns and 50 quick firing guns. British attacks in strong force at points between Lens and Queant were repulsed, as was a British thrust on a front of nearly two miles in the Gonnelleu region.

Berlin, May 6, via London, 10:13 p. m.—The official communication this evening says: "After their sanguinary defeat yesterday on the Aisne, the French have not repeated their attack. Only at the Winterburg, west of Cromme is fresh fighting in progress."

Contrary to the report of today, Chevreux was not taken by the French but is still in our hands."

Fear German Attack. PETROGRAD, May 6.—With renewed reports from Petrograd that the ed the harrowing experiences of himself, his wife and five children, ranging in age from 5 to 19. They were not permitted to land because of their destitution pending disposition of their case by the British consul. "Although only thirty-one miles from Santiago," he said, "the rebels put our homes to the torch. We were driven from the plantation at the point of bayonets and walked most of the way to Santiago."

Should Germany Defeat Allies, U. S. Safety Would Depend On Submarines

American submarine under full headway.

Should Germany succeed in starving England and France into submission by means of her U-boats, the submarine as a defensive weapon would immediately become a thing of tremendous importance to the United States. With many submarines Uncle Sam could prevent Germany from landing troops and supplies on his coasts. The photograph gives a clear conception of the power of this American undersea craft and shows clearly its construction above the waterline.

Why a tonic in the Spring? Nature never intended that man should pass his time in over-heated dwellings and office buildings, nor take his exercise in poorly ventilated street cars and swift moving automobiles. But man does just such things all through the winter season, the consequences being that the flesh, the nerves and the spirit are in a poisoned lethargy, giving rise to a sluggish feeling, with rheumatic or neuralgic pains, faintness, loss of energy and appetite, and a feeling of being tired all the time.
