

WRECKED SEAPLANE SAMPAIO CORREIA. This view was made as salvaging was in progress off the coast of Cuba, where the plane was wrecked

UNITED STATES-TO-BRAZIL FLIGHT was halted for a time when the Sampaio Correia was wrecked in a forced night landing. Lieutenant Walter Hinton and other members of the crew were unhurt.

WINNING A HEAT. Miss Lines, of the English team, during 800-meter race, in Pershing Stadium, Paris

BRITISH PASSENGER TRAINS IN HEAD-ON COLLISION. Three men were killed and many injured when trains met in fog at Milton Range Hall, England. Some of the cars fell into the canal

TAKE YOUR DOG AQUAPLANING. It's a wonderful way to give Rover a lot of fresh air. Mrs. George C. T. Remington, of Philadelphia, was snapped at Coronado, Calif.

THEY TIED IN THE HIGH JUMP. Miss Nancy Vorhees (left), the American, and Miss Hatt, of England, snapped after their efforts at Pershing Stadium, Paris

"MISS PHILADELPHIA" (Miss Kitty Mollneux) and MISS JEAN WHITE, runner-up in beauty contest AT THE "CONGRESS OF BEAUTY" in Atlantic City, next week, Miss Mollneux, who lives at 1414 South Forty-ninth street, will represent Philadelphia. Miss White took second honors

LOIS MEREDITH, stage and screen star, sailed on the steamship Paris, from New York. She's on a European tour

GRAND PRIZE WINNER. Helen Adams was acclaimed the best of them all at Asbury Park's annual baby carnival

MRS. JOHN WALTHER, of the Kenilworth, Oak Lane, sails tomorrow, with Mr. Walther, for long European tour

MRS. RAYMOND R. DONGES, member of State Democratic Committee of New Jersey

TOM HEWINS, of Central Y. M. C. A., physical director Lower Merion School, Ardmore

AT RUMSON, N. J. Mrs. William Russell Grace (left) and Mrs. W. Averill Harriman, snapped during the tournament for the Herbert Memorial Cup

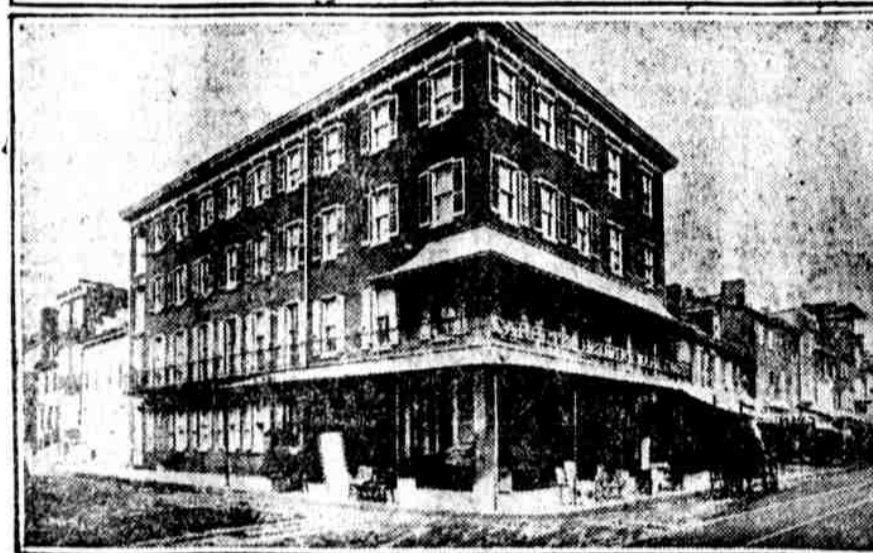

ON THE "BEACH" AT WASHINGTON. Take a peep—you'll see Assistant Secretary Roosevelt. The party was resting after a swim in the Wardman Park pool

LOOKING DOWN ON LOGAN SQUARE. In the foreground, at the left, are the remaining buildings of the Medico-Chi Hospital group. This view was made from Seventeenth and Arch streets

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

SECOND AND FITZWATER STREETS, as it looked in 1886. The building in the foreground was built by John Lancaster in 1847, being improved in 1885. Mrs. T. C. Wheaton, Sr., of Millville, N. J., is the contributor. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs

BROWNIE, the famous dog of the movie world, doing nurse duty. Brownie seems to know his job

FLAPPERS PUT ON NO FRILLS when it comes to watermelon. "No fork for me," declared the fair one, at Ocean City, N. J.

DR. CHARLES E. BRICKER, police surgeon, whose advice is always sought when drug raids are made. He's assisting in the present crusade

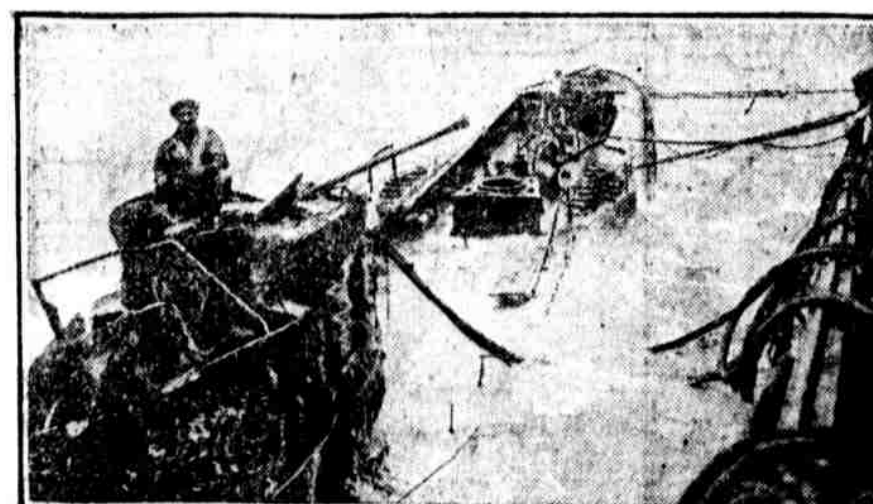

AQUAPLANING STUNT. Two California swimmers are speeding along after a fast motorboat

A SMART BATHING WRAP. Mother is lending a helping hand on the beach at Deauville, France

RAISING THE EX-GERMAN U-BOAT 111. While the boat was being taken out to be used for target practice it sank near Cape Henry, Virginia. The crew of the U. S. S. Falcon was ordered to raise it. The conning tower is now far out of the water. See members of the Falcon's crew on a pontoon

MISS RODENHEAVER assisted in West Chester Homeopathic Hospital drive CHESTER COUNTY FAIR in progress this week. Varied activities noticed by the photographer

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN was the speaker of the day

MRS. CHARLES LUKER helped a lot in work of Co-operative Council