

UB-148 Arrives After Fighting Storms : Ice Jam At Port Deposit : Tom Thumb's Furniture

WITH AN ANCHOR TORN AWAY the UB-148, a German submarine, has arrived at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, after several days in the severe storms, covered with ice and snow. The craft is brought here for experimental purposes.

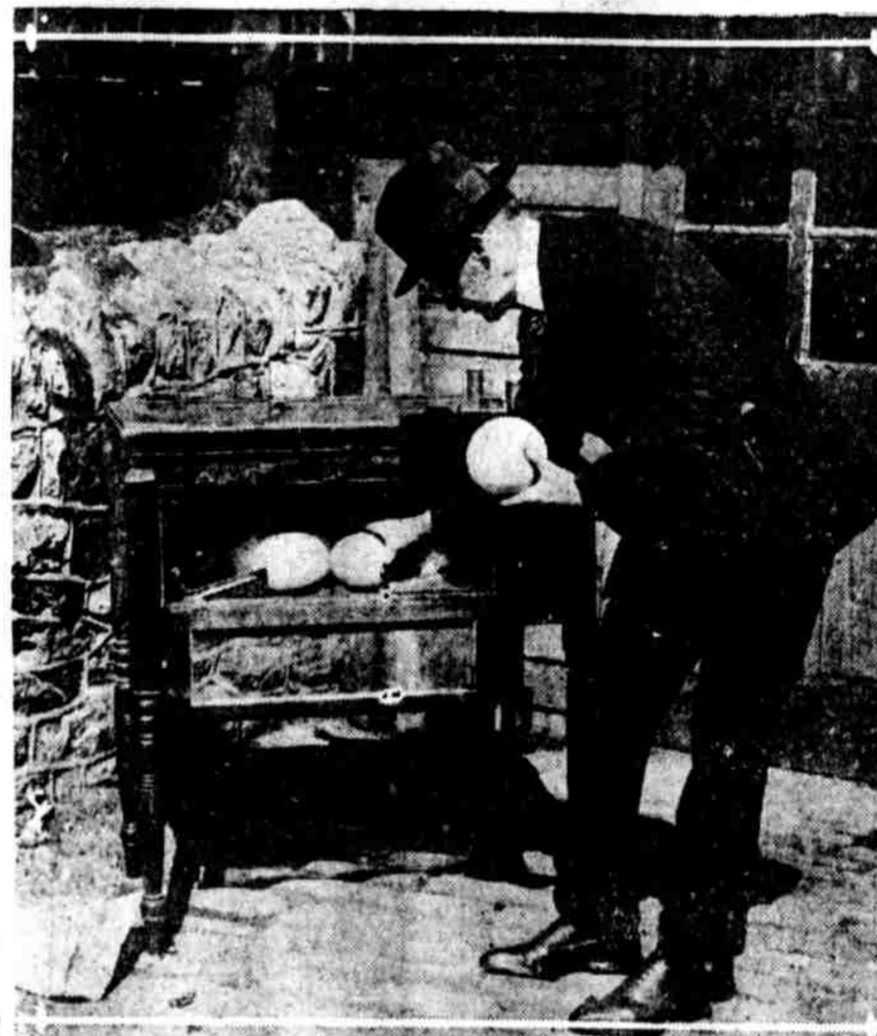

EXPERT fencer, sixty-two years old, will represent United States in Olympic games at Antwerp. He is Dr. G. M. Hammond, former fencing champion.

ARMY AVIATORS WITH TNT bombs of 112 pounds each are making efforts to break up this ice jam in the Susquehanna river at Port Deposit, Md. Much success was made by the bombers yesterday in other sections near the scene of this photograph.

FURNITURE TREASURES owned by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thumb are to be preserved in a special museum at Middleboro, Mass. Count Magri, who married the late Mrs. Thumb after Thumb died, is shown in the photograph.

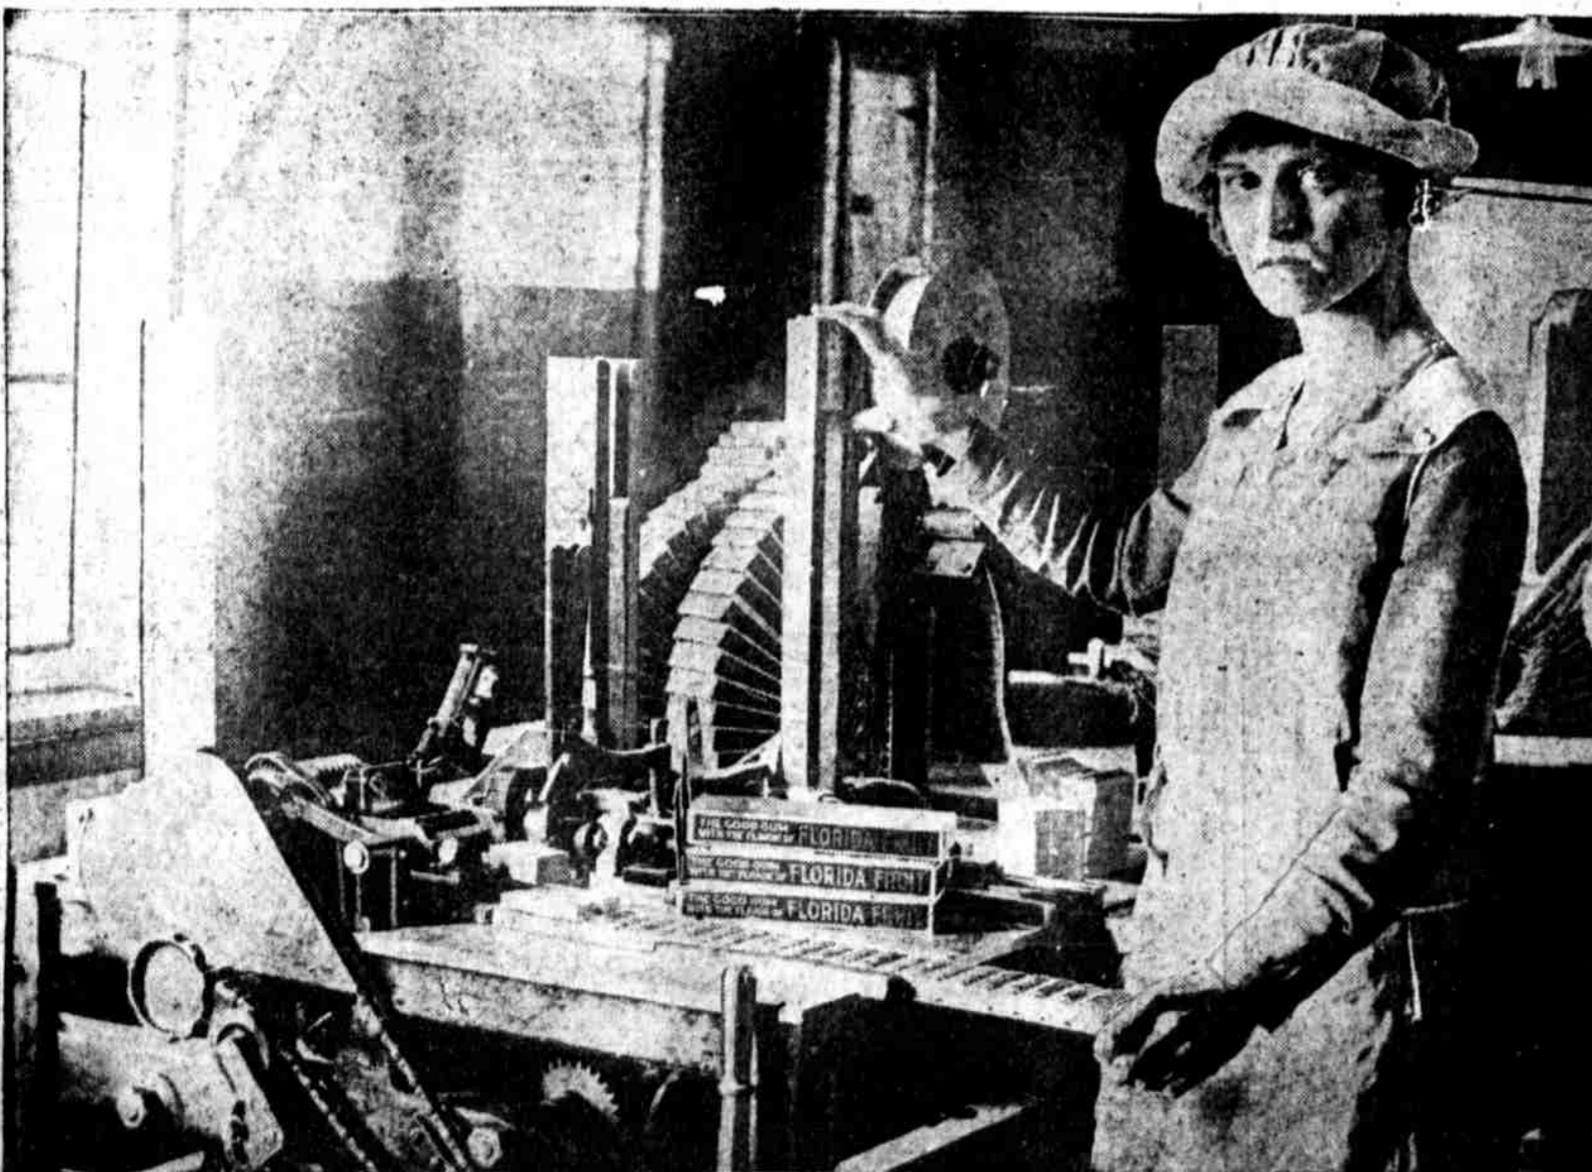

THE OSTRICH EGG INCUBATOR at the Philadelphia Zoo is now in constant use, and another will be built for use during the spring and summer days. A giant yield of birds is planned.

MAYOR MOORE at the annual luncheon of the Philadelphia Music Club, held at the Bellevue-Stratford. Left to right—Mrs. Frank A. Sieberling, of Akron, O., president of the National Federation of Musical Clubs; Mrs. J. S. W. Holton, president of the local club; Mayor Moore and Mrs. Fred Abbott.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

DOING TWO PERSONS' WORK on the newest gum-packing machine at the gum factory of Frank H. Flee, 2042 North Tenth street. The operator is Miss May Rankin, 43 North Twenty-second street. The bare gum is fed in the chute on which Miss Rankin has her right hand and in a few seconds it is pushed out on the projection at her left hand fully wrapped. She then fills the boxes ready for sale. This machine has a capacity of 80,000 sticks daily.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, the famous oil magnate, ready for a battle with the golf ball on the links at Ormond Beach, Fla., although nearing his eighty-first birthday anniversary. The links are on the grounds at his winter home. The photograph was taken a few days ago.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS KATHRYN FRANKEL, 5058 Parkside ave., Phila. Photograph for this feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.