Sunday School Lesson

COMMENTS BY REV. ERNEST BOURNE ALLAN, D. D.,
Pastor of the Washington Street Congregational Church and
Professor of the Marian Lawrence Sunday School, Toledo, Ohio.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 14TH

Lesson Title: Before Through Dinuba

Lesson, 1 Kings 20:21-23, 21:15-19

Golden Text: "Not that I have the upper hand over you, but God hath put us into the hand of you, and of him that is stronger than we."

1. The Boasters.

When Naboth declared the king of Judah, threatened to overthrow the king's throne, and killed the king of Judah's servant, the king of Judah was offended, and sent his men to take Naboth, and his family, and put them to death.

2. The Young Men.

It was once a common practice for boys to be educated in military schools, and to be trained in the use of arms. This was considered a good preparation for the young men to become soldiers, and to be able to defend their country in time of war.

3. The Young Men's Service.

It is important that young men be trained in the arts of war, in order that they may be able to defend their country in time of need. It is also important that young men be trained in the arts of peace, in order that they may be able to live happily and peacefully with their fellow men.

4. The Young Men's Success.

It is important that young men be trained in the arts of war, in order that they may be able to defend their country in time of need. It is also important that young men be trained in the arts of peace, in order that they may be able to live happily and peacefully with their fellow men.

5. The Young Men's Duty.

It is important that young men be trained in the arts of war, in order that they may be able to defend their country in time of need. It is also important that young men be trained in the arts of peace, in order that they may be able to live happily and peacefully with their fellow men.

6. The Young Men's Contribution.

It is important that young men be trained in the arts of war, in order that they may be able to defend their country in time of need. It is also important that young men be trained in the arts of peace, in order that they may be able to live happily and peacefully with their fellow men.

7. The Young Men's Conclusion.

It is important that young men be trained in the arts of war, in order that they may be able to defend their country in time of need. It is also important that young men be trained in the arts of peace, in order that they may be able to live happily and peacefully with their fellow men.