occurred the marriage of Miss Emily Bratt and Anthony Anfinson, both well-known and popular young people of this place. The wedding came as a complete surprise to their many friends. The well wishes of this com-munity are extended to them on their journey through life.

Many of the young people from here took in the big doings at St. Cloud and Sauk Rapids on the Fourth. The benefit dance for the Milo band boys, given in the Nels Sederquist barn on the evening of the Fourth, was well attended. About $85.00 was

Sunday, July 7, sixteen children received their first holy communion at the St. Louis Catholic church. The church was filled with relatives and friends and the occasion was a nota-ble one. The vocal and instrumental music was, as usual, grand, being rendered by the church choir, with a special violin solo by J. A. Stromwall. The altars were decorated with

There will be plenty of action and no end of spirit in the programs which they will present at the Chautauqua this summer.

Mr. Mason, the manager, who is really a whole show in himself, does not believe in permitting any time to go to waste while the program is in progress. They have the reputation of putting on one of the snappiest Chautauqua programs to be heard anywhere and the Bureau reports that they drew about the largest receipts of any attraction on any of their circuits last year. Although from a musical standpoint they are perfectly competent to put on a strictly classical concert program, they will give their undivided attention to the singing of the genuine old jubilee numbers in the

The Roof That Lasts WHEN you put on a new roof, you don't want to have to do it over again in a few years. That is why you should get Barrett's Everlastic "Rubber" Roofing: it lasts, and lasts. Put a Barrett's Everlastic Roof on all your steep-roofed buildings.

Any one can lay this roofing: no skilled labor required; just a hammer and a ladder.

We carry a full stock in one-, two-and three-ply. All rolls a full square. Nails and cement included.

Roosevelt's Patriotic Generosity.

Theodore Roosevelt's Nobel peace prize of $40,000 is to go back to him to be expended for war charities for the benefit of widows and children of soldiers. The senate has agreed to the resolution already adopted by the house-a request from Colonel Roosevelt—that the money he declined to accept for himself be used to help the families of American soldiers fighting in the war.
