Wall St. Stirred
By Clark's Attack
On Loan Efforts

Charge That “Ring” Is Against Liberty Bonds

The news of Clark’s attack on the Liberty Loan was the subject of active discussion in the Wall Street district this morning. The speaker in the House of Representatives yesterday in the course of his speech on the Liberty Loan bill, said: “I contend that the Government’s interest in this bond is the same as that in any other bond.
It is a business for which we are responsible,
and it is up
to us to see that it is made a success.”

He added that the Government had no right to ask for more than its fair share of the profit.

“Those who have profited by
sale
Liberty
Bonds,” he said, “should be held responsible.
They
are
the
ones who have
losses.”

The news of Clark’s attack
on
the Liberty Loan
spread like wildfire across the Wall Street district
this morning.

The large
subscribers,
do not wish to
nabbed
by
Government’s “ring,”
were alarmed.

They
in
state
confusion,
and were concerned about
effect
of Clark’s
attack
the
Liberty
Bonds.

The Government was alarmed,
sent
message
the President
expressing
concern
about
of Clark’s
attack
the
Liberty
Bonds.
