

Special Clothes A Special Price

$14.50

EOR BLUE SERGE

with distinctive style that denotes class in clothes. Drop in. Try them on. You'll be surprised at

and $6 Men's Tub SILK SHIRTS, $3.45

Taking Advantage of These FRIDAY

Strictly Pure

Fruit and Sugar

Xander's 75c Full Quart nny whiskies at One Dollar or 909 7th St.

RESUMPTION eek-End EXCURSIONS LD POINT COMFORT AND NORFOLK

DAY, APRIL 30 $4.00 ROUND FRIDAYS 201

FLANTIC FLEET of BATTLE MIPS in HAMPTON ROADS Literature at City Ticket Office I 15th Sweet N. W. orfolk & Washington Steamboat Co.

REE MURDERERS AT LARGE. enteen Committed Here Last Year

Capital's Record Good. murders epmmitted in Washing-during the past year still remain arge, according to statistics just by a New York newspaper. ince 1910 there have been 117 mur-B1111 remain uncaught ington's record compares released on his own recognizance. Pressler has now sued Gaines for res from other cities. damages, claiming that he was as of fifty-two murders since Jany 1 and twenty-eight of the murers still unapprehended. Boston ers and only one of the perpetraremains at large. Kansas City eighty-five murders and fourteer at city last year there were thirhomicides. Indianapolis police at $20 o'clock. the perpetrators of

PLAIN FLANNELS

Of light weight for the warm weather and tailored

FRENCH ADVANCE IN DARDANELLES ATTACK

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

across the peninsula. She eight miles away.

1:45 p. m.—I can see the Queen Elizabeth's shells bursting. The clouds of smoke and debris must be many hundreds of feet high. Three shells have xploded over the field batteries. Field Guns on Move.

2 p. m.—The field guns are on the ove on the Asiatic side. Shrapnel arsts in front of them. It is likely hat the allies have landed guns and tre attempting to advance. The rattle machine-gun fire confirms this im ession. The enormous French six-nneled cruisers are engaged nearby. ring rapidly, and the Queen Eliza-issed out of sight up the straits. This incides with the deepening roar behind low hills. The forts are firing oke has just risen near Chanak, fol-ring firing by the Queen Elizabeth. p. m.—There is no diminution in the being poured by the ips onto the forts and batteries. This irely is the most violent and long-istained naval bembardment in history. m.-It is possible now to obtain a in the narrows. There are vessels in the narrows. There are vessels ing upon it, presumed to be British.

ar like flashes from a series of lightof prodictous power. Sometimes us like summer lightning, in the summer lightning.

19.45 p. m.—One hundred and fifty shells still is delving into the accounts of Mr. have been fired by the fleet during half an hour. All were from the big guns.

Most of the work is being done by the uth of the strait.

5 a. m .- The guns had ceased on I awoke half an hour after sun-Many more ships have now arrived,

INSURANCE PLANS DISCUSSED.

Board of Trade Committee Examines Regulation Schemes.

of insurance in the District were of the local Boy Scouts, however. A meeting of the executive council of the Boy Scouts probably will be held to-light of Trade in the board recommendation. Preliminary plans for proper regulaplan to draw up a bill giving Washton "much needed improvement i next Congress was discussed. Harry Allmond, chairman of the com-nities, said: "We reached no definite plusions of any kind. It is probable it at our next meeting we will appoint subcommittee to make a rough draft bill for insurance regulation. ng tonight was devoted to the airof the personal views on insurance

BENSON SEES NAVY OFFICIALS.

Operations May 11.

William S. Benson, named by ecretary Daniels Wednesday to inaugu-ate the new Bureau of Operations in the ate the new Bureau of Operations in the Navy Department, came to Washington esterday and conferred with the Secre my and officers of the department with egard to his new office. It was an-ounced that Capt. Benson will not take is new post until May II. Capt. Benson now considering the choice of a capto be his senior assistant. The se-tion of other assistants will be deed, it is stated, until the needs of the w bureau have been ascertained by exnce with its operation, officer had yet been selected to suced Capt. Benson at the Philadelphia

FANCY HUES TRIP GAINES. exican Boundary Official Arrested

avy Yard.

After Waistcont Row. John Wesley Gaines, former Repre sentative from Tennessee, now con-nected with the Mexican Boundary Commission, has run afoul of the law Mr. Gaines was sued for $10,000 dam-ages yesterday by David Pressler. a Mr. Gaines entered the busi ness place of the tailor the other day and became involved in a controversy over a fancy waistcost that Mr. Gainer had ordered. The lie was passed, and Mr. Gaines, so it is reported, struck the tailor. Mr. Gaines was arrested and saulted by the former staesman. Law School to Celebrate.

Celebration of the semi-centennial ann ersity of the establishment of the

FRENCH CRUISER LEON GAMBETTA TORPEDOED IN ADRIATIC

TRENCH CRUISER LEON GAMBETTA eris, April 29.—Official announcement concerning the loss of life on the armored cruiser Leon Gambetta, torpedoed and sunk in the Adriatic Sea, has seen made yet. She carried a complement of 725 men and officers, and it is believed most of them were lost. The cruiser was of 13,352 tons and comdat Brest in 1991. She carried four 7.6-inch guns, sixteen 6.4-inch guns, and two 18-inch submerged torpedo tubes. It is believed that an Austrian arine, operating from the naval base at Pola, torpedoed the warship near—Otranto.

PYRAMID BUILT

ON $42 CHARGE

ous Allegations Will Be Made Against Martin.

PROBE IS GOING DEEPER

Deputy Auditor Still Delving Into Accounts of Playgrounds Supervisor.

Edgar S. Martin, suspended supervisor of playgrounds, who was arrested Wed.

The Colonel spent the morning explain warrant for his arrest."

Mr. Laws continued: "Mr. Donovan has indicated that there probably are has indicated that there probably are other similar irregularities. I cannot at the present time say whether these are of a criminal nature or not. Although the natite scene. The picture as beautiful as it is terrible. There is no sign of the fire slackening. With it fitfall the flashes from the ships' suns integral like flashes from a series of light-they are so rapid they might be mis-taken for Morse code signals. The reply of the forts creates a glow in the heavfor a week or two yet. Mr. Donovan

Mr. Donovan, Detectives E. W. Boyle since the discovery of the alleged irreg-ularities was made; J. J. Slattery, for-mer employe of the playgrounds departent, and M. P. Junkin, an employe of

Mr. Martin is suspended from the department without pay pending the out-come of the investigation. He still is holding the office of scout commissioner

PRISONERS NOT "PIRATES."

Taken from Subs Treated Well, British Bonat.

London, April 29.-German prisoners submarines are not getting le treatment" from the taken from submarines are "dishonorable treatment" British government, but are enjoying the privileges accorded to all other prisoners of war. Official announcement to this effect was made in Parliament today by Thomas J. McNamara, Parliamentary secretary for the admiralty. He denied that prisoners taken from German submarines wer being treated as "pirates."

GOETHALS COMING TO CAPITAL.

Governor of Canal Will Discuss Passage of Fleet with Daniels. Secretary Daniels announced yesterday that Maj. Gen. Goethals will leave Panama tomorrow to come to Washing-ton to discuss with the administration the question of sending the fleet through the Panama Canal next July.

Some time ago Mr. Daniels made inquiries of the canal authorities in this governent, was compelled to sit idly regard and it was decided that the matter could best be discussed with the gov-ernor of the canal in person.

Last week Mr. Daniels announced that the President had decided that the fleet should be sent through the canal on July in accordance with the plans made when the passage was postponed from last March. It is admitted, however, that

New Police Chief's Administration Leads to Exodus.

Chicago, April 22.—The initial step in the campaign of the new chief of police, Charles C. Healy, to rid Chicago of crooks, resulted in twenty men being locked up early today by a raiding squad of fortyfive picked detectives. Crooks were re-ported to be leaving the city before the raiders had visited half of the underworld neighborhoods marked for the gen-

BRYCE ON U. S. COMMISSION.

with America. School will commence tonight with a smoker, reunion and meeting of the simple at $20 o'clock.

The celebration will reach its culmination to morrow night at a big banquet to be given at Rauscher's.

WILL America.

WILL America.

WILL America.

BARNES AND TAMMANY IN MERGER, HE SAYS

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

Officials Insinuate More Seri
Officials Insinuate More Seri
Ous Allegations Will D

No Injury to Morals. The justice held that Barnes might have known of the existence of vice and gambling in Albany without injury to his moral character. In any event, he said, Barnes had not been charged in the Roosevelt statement or in the Roosevelt answer with mingling in Albany municipal corruption, and all of the evidence tending to show any such matters had no place. The existence of any other he may repudiate the letter in evidence to day.

From this time forth the subject of Barnes connection with State printing will be gone into exhaustively. Deputy trunks full of books which must be analyzed by expert accountants. Bestow any such matters had no place tween expert witnesses however the The justice held that Barnes might denied the existence of any other he

Officials of the United States district attorney's office said last night that they expect more irregularities will be revealed by the investigation now beling conducted into the accounts of Edgar S. Martin, suspended supervisor the Colone's forces may march when Edgar S. Martin, suspended supervisor the Colone's forces may march when Edgar S. Martin, suspended supervisor the Colone's forces may march when Edgar S. Martin, suspended supervisor the time arrives.

of playgrounds, who was arrested Wednesday on a charge of obtaining $4° of District funds under false pretenses.

Bolitha J. Laws, assistant prosecutor, who is conducting the investigation, said that "Mr. Martin's continued course of conduct a revealed by facts pre-bandy by placed part of the responsibil-bandy page of part of the responsibil-bandy page of page of the property of the responsibil-bandy page of the responsibi ingness to split either blame or credit fifty-fifty with whoever happened to be handy he placed part of the responsibilof conduct, as revealed by facts pre-sented by Daniel J. Donovan, unques-tionably involved other acts of a char-he said, advised him in his conference steel corporation.
Will Call Governor.

After learning tonight that Gov. Whit- een boats, and an auxiliary comprised of man had denied writing the letter re-flecting on the Republican organization. Admiral E

Mr. Ivins made it clear that the governor is asked to come at his own convenience. He does not expect him till the Barnes side begins to put in its evidence. Because of the governor's high official position it was out of the question to issue a subpoena. At midnight Mr. Ivins had received no reply. If the governor positively repudiates the letter he will destroy the effect of one of the most im-portant pieces of testimony the defense and J. R. Stringfellow, who have has put in. The Roosevelt people consistented in connection with the case tended that the Whitman letter was exsince the discovery of the alleged irregment which is the cause of action, as it gives him official authority for making his charge against Barnes.

Headed Off Pante. After asserting, with many gestures and much emphasis, that the purpose of the permission for the purchase of the Tennessee Coal Company was to head off a panic, Roosevelt said:
"The whole matter was published, as insisted it should be, and the panic was

The story he told the jury today was a repetition of his testimony a few days igo to the Stanley committee in Wash

Aside from the Colonel and Loeb the only important witness of the witness was former Senator Agnew, which in troduced the race-track bills for Gov Hughes. Agnew said that Grattan, of Albany County, had violated a promise to him to support the bills. Agnew went to see Barnes about it and Barnes told im that he considered it good politics for Grattan to make this change in mind.
A letter was introduced written by eastern branch of the Potomac. Butler Barnes to Dr. Andrew McFarland, was swimming with several companions which McFarland identified, admitting when he went down. It was severthat he had counselled Grattan about his hours before his body was recovered. ace-track bill vote, but said he did this as part of his duty as a citizen. The estimony on this subject was as a whole disappointing to the Colonel's side Loeb Divides Honors. Loeb, who is as unlike the Colonel, as one man could be unlike another divided stellar honors with his former chief in He was called to the stand at 3 o'clock sations with Barnes as to Albany local an hour while Ivins, for Barnes, and

The only exercise Mr. Loeb took in this hour consisted in crossing his legs once and slowly opening and shutting his eyes 16 times. His full, expressive face wore no sign of interest in what was going on.
Certain, and that it is possible that the Dreadnoughts will not be able to make who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants will not be able to make the passage.

Spread Crooks on Run.

Sign of interest in what was going on. Now and then he glanced at the Colonel who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants of the passage.

Same that it is possible that the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants of the passage.

Same that it is possible that the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants of the passage.

Same that it is possible that the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants of the passage.

Same that it is possible that the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants of the passage.

Same that it is possible that the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants of the passage.

Same that it is possible that the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly. Occupants of the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly occupants of the passage.

Two fires, believed to have been of included the passage.

The latter had swung his chair, about so as to get a full view of the witness stand age to the two structures was estimated and the colonel who smiled at him encouragingly.

Two fires, believed to have been of include the passage.

the days when he was looked upon often as the Mr. Hyde of the White House, are settled with gray now. His features were calm and unperturbed. Although plainly considering every answer care-fully, he did not flinch under, the fire of Barnes, who wore the expression of a man eating fish, as the former secretary man eating fish, as the former secretary gave his testimony. This was the first time Murphy or bipartisanship had been brought into the case by direct evidence.
Loeb's testimony there was of great importance. Ivins waived any cross-examination and effort to shake it.

Colonel Gets Appliance.

LEAVES 14 GRANDCHILDREN.

of the long legal engagement in the aft-ernoon he read a profusely illustrated Wild West story in a periodical which he had absent-mindedly abstracted from McGrath to Be Held Today. Grath, 61 years old, widow of the late

James McGrath, who died Tuesday at Mrs. McGrath was born in County her residence, 310 Second street southeast, will be held at 9 o'clock this morn to verify the letter introduced in evi-dence. The Barnes lawyers held a coun-sel to decide whether or not Gov. Whiting from St. Peter's Church. Burial wil man will be called. They argue that in-asmuch as he repudiated one letter and show any such matters had no place tween expert witnesses, however, the in this action.

witnesses, excepting that of Loeb, or the arguments of the lawyers. During most

Admiral Fletcher Will Be in Command May 18. Sixty-four vessels of the United States navy will take part in the naval review that will be held at New York on May 18 in the presence of President Wilson, the members of his Cabinet, and other tionably involved other acts of a char-acter kindred to that mentioned in the warrant for his arrest."

he said, advised him in his conference distinguished visitors. Of these fifteen with Mr. Gary and Mr. Frick, of the will be battleships, made up in four di-visions; a destroyer flotilla of twenty-

> Admiral Eletcher will be in command Z flecting on the Republican organization, introduced into the evidence today, William M. Ivins, chief counsel for Barnes, sent the governor a politely worded telegram requesting him to come to Syracuse and clear up this and certain other matters for the benefit of the jury.
>
> Admirai Frietcher will be in command of the fleet. The battleship Wyoming will be his flagged.
>
> The battleships are scheduled to arrive in New York on May 8. The submarine flottilla and auxiliary division are scheduled to arrive at New York on the St. and the destroyer flotilla and auxiliary

GERMAN CHARGE DISPROVED. Inquiry Convinces Officials No Sub-

marines Are Made for Allies. Desnite repeated assertions in quarters marine parts are being made in this coun try for assembly in Canada, officials declare that no evidence of such operations has been obtained by the govern

For six months the State and Navy De partments have had this question before them, and Mr. Bryan has Charles M. Schwab's pledge that he will not build in any of the plants controlled by him submarines to be delivered to the allies duced to show that this pledge is being

State Department has made another ininto the matter, but the report has not yet reached Mr. Bryan.

DROWNING SEASON IS HERE. first Tragedy Reported to Police

Yesterday. The first tragedy of the swimming sea-son was reported to the police yesterday when Raymond Butler, 18 years old,

RELICS OF DEAD POET STOLEN. Rock Creek Cabin of Joaquin Miller

Broken Into and Looted. Part of the collection of the late Jos famous California poet, has been stolen from his memorial cabin in Rock Creek Park. The cabin was broken volver, carried by the poet in his wanderings through the Sierras, taken, along with two razors and some old coins.

The cabin is maintained by the California Society, which moved it from the

SAY GERMANS FIRED BRIDGES

and its occupant.

Loeb's hair and mustache, jet black in at $300,000.

A span of the Connaught bridge drop-ped when two firemen were on it. They were rescued. A second fire, which west of the other, was extinguished sympathizers.

COMMISSION.

Colemei Gets Applause.

For the first time since the trial bestrea.

Sount Bryce, for Uniter States, present England nission to which hereafter desplause, under headway when the court, hereafter desplause, under headway when the court, applause, under headway when the court, the hereafter desplause, under headway when the court, the headway when the court, the hereafter desplause, under headway when the court, the headway when the court of the first the headway when the court of the first the headway when the court of the headway when the court o

Funeral Services for Mrs. Mary Funeral services for Mrs. Mary A. Mc-

Clare, Ireland, and came to Washing-ton when 4 years old. After her mar-riage to Mr. McGrath, who was in the army, she went to Columbus, Ohio, where he was stationed for twenty-seven years. RAE TANZER ON STAND.

full of VELVET.

BIG man ain't the feller that never makes mistakes, but the man that's always bigger than the big mistakes he makes.

Witness in Offshoot "Dear Oliver" Case.

A pipeful of Kentucky's Burley de Lare, ged into VELVET, The Smoothest oking Tobacco, will soothe regrets cheerful outlook for tomorrow. There are 16c tine and 5c metal-lined begs

New York, April 29.-United States Commissioner C. S. Houghton was a witness for the government today at the perjury trial of Franklin D. Stafford, one of the figures in the Osborneerine Donovan, Rosalie B. McGrath, Mrs. Celia McQuigg, and Mrs. Anna L. Wash-Rae Tanzer case. Miss Tanzer, whose breach of promise suit against former Assistant District Attorney James W. Osborne, was withdrawn, appeared as a witness for the defence. It was Staf-ford who identified Mr. Osborne as "Oliver Osborne," the sweetheart of

1207 G Street N. W

While there she was matron of a hos pital.

Mrs. McGrath is survived by fourteer

Mass., and James McGrath, Mrs. Cath-

French Finance Head in London.

London, April 29.—M. Ribot, French minister of finance, arrived in London oday and conferred with Chancellor burn, all of this city.

Lloyd-George at the treasury.

TRUSTEE SALE

W. W. HOEKE 1207 G Street N. W.

Special Notice

This is the W. W. Hoeke establishment, the only store in Washington with a member of the Hoeke family connected with it in

Furniture Stock

For your own protection, we want to state that certain other furniture sales are being advertised under the familiar HOEKE name, but they are not to be confused with the W. W. HOEKE AT 1207 G STREET N. W.

This is absolutely a sale of furniture fine and new-a sale of the finest furniture stock in the city, the kind of furniture that for over a quarter of a century has made the name of HOEKE a byword in households where the best was none too good.

It's a big sale—a great sale. A golden opportunity for all. Mr. Hoeke, himself, is here to Serve you in the Trustee Sale.

Sacrificing the Highest Grade Furniture Stock Washington Has Ever Seen at Savings of 40 to 60 Per Cent

There are four big floors of this kind of furniture, besides a vast and rare stock of Whitall's famous domestic Oriental rugs and the newest summer floor coverings, all at sacrifice prices.

The qualities are the finest ever achieved, and the prices are certainly the lowest. Some of the famous names linked with the Trustee Sale:

The Gunn Sectional Bookcases, Luce Furniture Company, Mackinaw Refrigerators, Windsor Furniture Company, Whittall's Famous Rugs, Taylor's Upholstered Chairs, Royal Easy Chairs, Heywood-Wakefield Reed Furniture, and kindred qualities.

Every Article in This Sale is Guaranteed Exactly as Represented Nothing Reserved—All Transactions Cash—Free Deliveries. Goods Held as Long as 60 Days. Small Deposit Accepted.

N. H. Worthington, Trustee.

1207 G Street N. W.

1207 G Street N. W.

Next Door to Brownley's