CREDITORS WANT TO KNOW ABOUT GREENHUT BONDS

Large deposits in banks also to be subject of Sharp Inquiry.

WILLIAM M. IVINS
HEADS COMMITTEE

Trade Organizations Will Fight

The committee's efforts to secure the cancellation of the bonds.

HUNTS PERJURY IN CLEARY CASE

Grand Jury Charged to Settle Question of Murder Gun.

ONE WHO LET BOSS GO IS REMOVED

Foreman Whose Associates

Dicted Boy's Slayer Again

at Head.

This is a copy of the article from the New York Tribune, Tuesday, April 18, 1915. It contains various news and feature stories from the time period. The articles cover topics such as baseball, military orders, and news stories from the time. The Tribune was a prominent newspaper of the era, covering a wide range of topics including politics, entertainment, and local news.