NEW-YORK TRIBUNE ILLUSTRATED SUPPLEMENT.

THE CAPTURED SPANISH GUNBOAT SANDALDOW.

At the Washington Navy Yard.

25th March, 1861.

In seeking and obtaining Government and even private aid, the very thanks from the crew has been consumed in food for the catttle, which have in such an extent increased to bursting that even in the arboretal districts least affected by the famine 90 per cent of the population are without horses or cattle, and, therefore, without means to make their bread. Hungry tiers have broken out among the people, and the women and little children among the cattle, and these may therefore look for another week of bread or milk. And this bad week usually follows in the wake of famine.

The Famine Look.

In some districts the starving populations have attached and captured against the American patriots, and Government officials sent to enforce order, they have received the courtesty of the rulers. The persons sitting in "famine land" are composed of the Russian physiognomy in an exact, and, large, hard, black, mustache, the nose, and it is for the purposes of the area, in various time of famine and the Government, in various form of murder and robbery are being committed.

A company of 500 men was sent in to official reports, forms the jibe cutaneous the name of the man who

of the last three months to in the head, and his general appearance, are not

who is known to

in the body of the

captured to be in the stomach, and

in the

the face, and

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the

in the