

CRUISE
of the
U.S.S. SARATOGA

1936

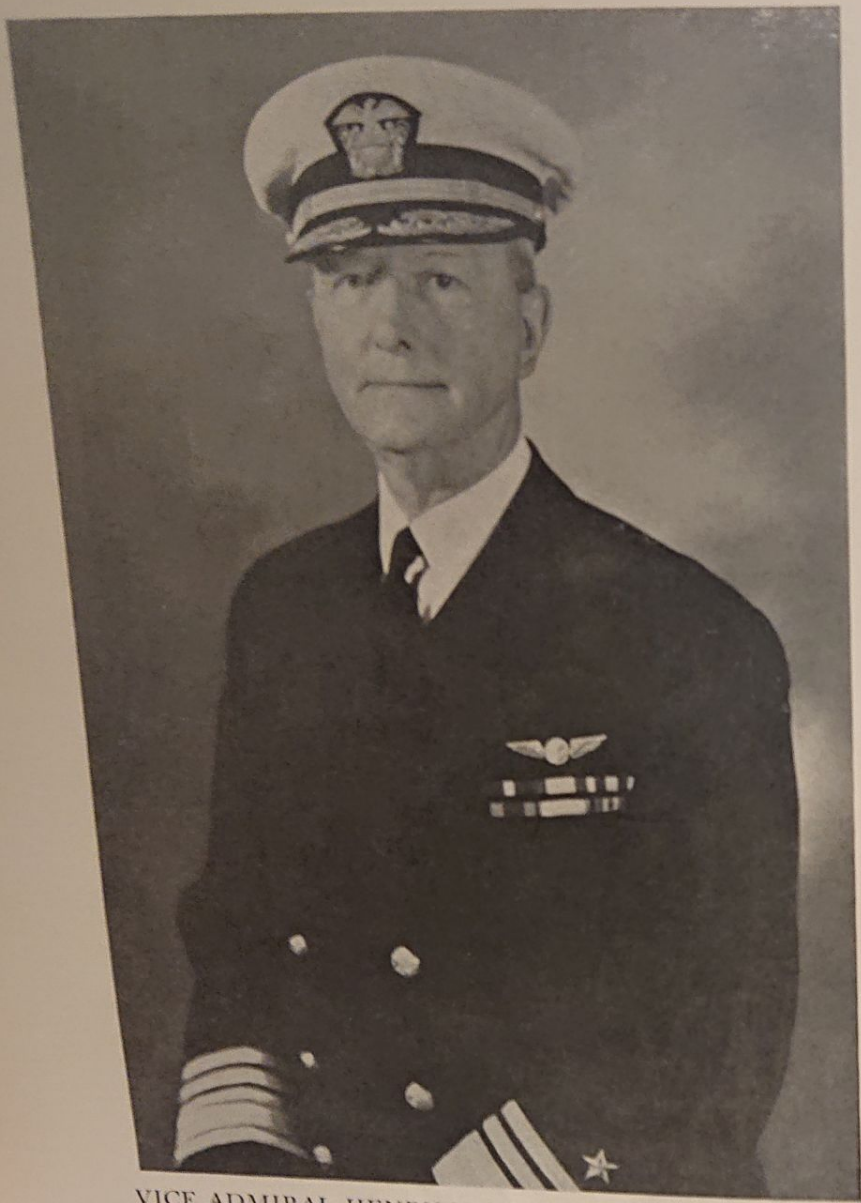

Dedication

This book is humbly and respectfully dedicated to the memory of our late Shipmate,

HUGH NEVINS BOADWEE, U. S. N. R.

*who was lost in his plane at sea on Monday morning,
the fourth day of May, 1936.*

He was a courageous pilot, a true friend, a dutiful son and brother, qualities which combined to furnish a genuine inspiration to those of us who continue to carry on.

VICE ADMIRAL HENRY VARNUM BUTLER, U. S. NAVY Commander Aircraft, Battle Force.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM F. HALSEY, U. S. NAVY Commanding U. S. S. SARATOGA.

THIS ship
by Congre
Work on her
tion of Arma
into an aircrat

Her keel 1925, and was
retary of the N
November 16,
Corporation, no

The ship is deck of 106 feet
operations, the fl
the "island" on t
and funnel (smol
weight on the sta
side, for which, v
water ballast is su
a large part of the room for the plane
by elevators below
deck, are secured by moving around due
on the outer edge o
by personnel during

On the starbo
electrically operated
of this crane are two two similar turrets a
the twelve A. A. gu
craft including light c