

Cannes – the playground of the continental set – glittering center of the Riviera, hub of the Cote d' Azur – all this and more. Along this then barren coast, Napoleon camped upon his return from Elba.

France

Originally a small fishing village, only pleasure boats remain to hint of its once main occupation.