In the bay of Cannes is the isle of Sainte-Marguerite. In its ancient fort the "man with the iron mask" was imprisoned during the 17th century. Historians are still debating about the true identity of the man behind the mask.

A Real Display of French Artistry.